Orientation and Talk on 'Women in Politics'

Date: 18-07-2014

An orientation class was conducted on 18th July 2014. Our Principal, Lt. (Dr.) P. Mohamedali presided over the meeting and welcomed the new students to the college and asked them to make the best of it. The aim of this class was to give orientation to first year students in the beginning of academic session. He also dwelled upon the rising need for women to join politics to be part of the governance. He said that the college life provides enough opportunities to show their political skills and all students must make maximum use of the opportunities available. About 100 students attended the class. He asked the students to follow a disciplined approach to life. Dr. Preethy Alex welcomed the audience and Smt. K. M. Rukkiya delivered vote of thanks.

Debate on 'Job or Family: which one do you choose?'

Date: 07-08-2014

A debate on the topic 'Job or Family: which one do you choose?' was organized under the chairmanship of Lt. (Dr.) P. Mohamedali, our Principal in the college auditorium on 07th August 2014. About 200 students participated. The students especially girls actively participated in the discussion. While there were many takers for a settled family life, those who advocated for financial independence and social security through a stable job had the majority. The heated debate showed the changing trends amongst the student community. The lively debate concluded with Sreelakshmi giving the vote of thanks. Smt. Manjula Raman was the moderator.
