MAGIC OF MANIPUR

DATE: 14-10-2017

The hearts of the students and teachers alike were lost in the entertaining performance from Manipur organized by the Department of Oriental Languages on 14-10-2017 as part of the cultural integration programme. The programme organized in association with SPIC MACAY was headed by the renowned dancer Sinam Basu Singh. Their performance opened with the traditional Manipuri dance which was followed by shivastuti to pay their salutations to Lord Shiva and the Pung Cholom. The main attraction however was the charming Raas Leela describing the eternal love of Radha and Krishna. The performance was composed on the basis of Gita Govinda by Jayadeva. Sinam Basu Singh is a renowned artist and is a nationally acclaimed performer who was declared by Doordarshan as 'A' Grade Artist. The Raas Leela was a modernized form of the devadasi tradition of Meitei Temple of Manipur. As an art form, the Raas Leela was developed to promote Vaishnavite Bhakti tradition. Poornima Devi and Anita Devi breathed new lives into Krishna and Radha. They were supported by Elizabeth and Monica who performed the roles of Radha's Sakhis (friends). They stepped to the mesmerizing music of Lal Mohan Singh's Punga and R K Shinde's flute.
